REPUBLICANS

With the first meeting of the exc ican central committee, the open the state financial committee wi ing gun of the republican party campaign was fired in Reno Saturday Four members of the committee were in attendance, George Sanford of Carson City, and Whitman Symmes of Virginia City, being out of the state on business. Those present were Senator H. D. Moro iouse, Secretary William Kearney. Judge William Orr and Mr Wilson d Yerington. An extensive program of work to he pre-primary campaign was tenta vely adopted and will be put into ffect at the second meeting of the ommittee next Tuesday.

During the coming week, letter will be sent out to prominent repub leans throughout the state askin uggestions as in methods which mase used to help the cause of repub licanism in the state. At the same time: each; member of the central committee will draw up a tentality plan of campaign. The final pr gram of the committee will evolved from the suggestion r celved. In this way, Senator Mor hosue pointed out, it is believed the party will be able to secure maxium co-operation from its possibers Sample primary ballots and in tructions for conducting the repullican caucus will also be sent to all county central committees during the coming week.

Next week's meeting will be ad dressed by Albert Lindley, financial egional director of the national omnittee, who will make a deladed explanation of the methods by which it is planned to finance both state utive committee of the state repub and national campaign, after which
